Calls Him Past Grand Master in Use of Words.

Constitution Is Blank Paper chant declining from business. to President, He Says.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 9 .- Gov. James K. Vardaman, in an interview given in reply to President Roosevelt's speech at St. Louis, strongly denounced the President's policy, and called him a revolutionist.

The governor says: "Mr. Roosevelt is a past grand master in the use of words. With the great French diplomat, he evidently thinks that language is to conceal, rather than express, thoughts. Within the pile of verbiage there lurks the most pernicious principles and vicious politics that ever wrecked a republic or destroyed the rights of the people.

Preaches Purity.

and at the same time accepted from the railroads contributions to corrupt the ballot. He accepts the office bought for him by their criminal contributions and then turns around and undertakes who corruptly bought for him the office he holds.

"A wonderful man, indeed, and more remarkable still is it to me that the people of Mississippi are caught by the little cheap flattery and platitude which he indulges in when he comes on his Absolute Sale—None reserved speaking tours to the South.

Constitution Blank Paper.

"The Constitution of the United States is to this man a blank piece of paper on this block."

Don't forget the number, we have no connection with other auction houses on this block. upon which he would write anything that his judgment might prompt, or his political fortunes dictate.

"Mr. Roosevelt is a revolutionist. He has no respect for the laws of his country, constitutional or statutory, if they happen to interfere with the consummation of any of his schemes or plans. The fial of his spasmodic will, superinduced by consuming vanity, is the only law that he respects."
